The staff looks forward to welcoming you!!

Hello Ojibway members, tennis crusaders;

It is with great enthusiasm that I introduce myself. My name is Clifford T. Brown and I will be your Head Tennis professional this summer. By way of summary, I have had the fortunate opportunity to instruct at some amazing clubs around the world, teaching in places such as Watch Hill R.I., Nantucket and the Inn at Manitou, all of which were terrific experiences that taught me immeasurable lessons about the game. Tennis is the most perfect combination of athleticism, artistry, power, style and wit; if you manage to win zero points you still get love.

At the Ojibway this summer, the beautiful game will be enjoyed in an inclusive environment of social engagement, interaction, fun, competitiveness and more fun. I want everyone to be involved; we will be introducing new, exciting initiatives while keeping the successful programs of years past in the rotation. Come out in the morning, come out after a couple of cocktails, come out if you have never hit a ball before in your life. The plan is to make the Tennis area the engine of an already thriving club. I can't wait to get started, if you have any questions feel free to e-mail me at cliffordtbrown@gmail.com.

I very much look forward to meeting you all this summer

Sincerely

Clifford T. Brown
